The Miami Dolphins are preferred at the nfl sports betting page as they host the Detroit Lions.

The Dolphins are a risky play in Football betting since they have nothing to play for after they were eliminated from playoff consideration a week ago. Detroit is still competing hard and may very well be a quality bet at the online sportsbook.

Dolphins -3.5, total 41 - The Lions actually look like the greater choice in this match. They broke their long road losing streak last week by winning at Tampa Bay and they might be able to make it 2 in a row at Miami. The Dolphins have had trouble all year at home and there's no reason to feel they will play hard.

Detroit Lions 10-4 ATS - The Lions may have only four wins straight up but they've got been golden versus the spread going 10-4. The squad is almost constantly cut-throat and they are nearly usually getting points. Drew Stanton has been functional at quarterback and Detroit's defense can make competes. They definitely aren't overmatched in this match vs Miami.

Miami Dolphins 2-5 ATS at Home - Unfortunately for the Miami Dolphins, they lost to the worst squad in pro football last weekend...the Bills. How might this have happened? They Miami Dolphins have been an embarrassment this season, and presently own the NFL's worst home record at 1-6. Maybe this is related to a below average offense, but one would think that their leading five defense would've evened things out. If the Dolphins knew how to win at home they could have made the playoffs. In their last two home games they've got lost downright to Cleveland and Buffalo and did not cover the nfl wagering lines. Had they won those 2 games as they should have they would be 9-5 as an alternative to 7-7 and pretty much in the playoff picture. Head coach Tony Sparano is deemed a solid coach but Miami really should not losing at home to the Browns and Bills. Sparano could be along the way out although it's not all his fault. Chad Henne is not a franchise quarterback and Miami still has some issues on defense.

Series-History - The Dolphins have won five of the seven all-time meetings plus they are 4-3 versus the spread at football Wagering site. The teams have met three times this decade, the last meeting which came in 2006. Miami won at Detroit in that match by a score of 27-10. The squad performed in Miami in 2002 and it was a 49-21 defeat by Miami. The other meeting this decade occurred in 2000 in Detroit as the Miami Dolphins won 23-8. Gambling Tip: take note when gambling on the Miami Dolphins, some bet makers are putting their cash on one last home win for Miami this season, even though this prior loss to the Bills means they will not be making it into the playoffs this season.
