On The Strip, Off The Strip Or Near The City - Vegas Has It All

Las Vegas is well recognized as the gambling capital of the world, but regardless of whether you are a gaming fanatic or not, the city has so much available that you're sure to have a great time. Having world class casinos, luxurious lodgings, fine dining establishments, places where you can shop till you drop as well as a very long list of thrilling attractions, it really is among the best holiday destinations worldwide. Here are several reasons that will persuade you to choose Vegas as the next holiday location.

The Most Searched Summer Destination

According to a recent report in Vegas Inc., queries on popular travel website Kayak.com indicate that Las Vegas could possibly be one of the more popular holiday destinations this summer. During the months from March to May, as many as 228,818 queries were conducted for travel to Las Vegas between the months of June and August. Overall, 7.36% queries on Kayak.com were for Vegas. As reported by the site, New York, Chicago, Washington, Los Angeles and San Francisco were the top 5 cities from where vacationers conducted searches for Las Vegas. Having so much available at one place, it is hardly a surprise that Las Vegas is one of the top summer season places in the country.

What Makes Vegas the Top Holiday Destination?

It truly is difficult to identify all that the city offers here, but the attractions might be roughly divided into those on the Las Vegas Strip, those off the Strip and must visit sites near the city. Las Vegas Strip is a 6.8 Km stretch of road that houses some of the best and most well known casinos, hotels and resorts worldwide. The strip is nearly always the very first stop for visitors on a holiday to Vegas. If you appreciate modern architecture, you are sure to be pleased as the buildings on this boulevard are positively stunning. Some of the attractions on the Strip include the fountains at Bellagio, the auto collections at Imperial Palace, the fashion show mall, show in the sky at Rio, famous Madame Tussauds Museum, Circus Circus and many more.

Off the Strip, you can indulge in race car rides or visit the botanical park as well as other fascinating museums like Las Vegas Natural History Museum, Nevada State Museum and Neon Museum and Boneyard. Besides the long list of locations within the city, there are a selection of must visit places a short distance away from the city like the Grand Canyon, Hoover Dam, Lake Mead, Zion National Park plus more.

In order for you to enjoy your getaway to the fullest, you will need a luxurious accommodation to relax, enjoy yourself and prepare for the next day, and Bluegreen Club 36, a bluegreen resort is just the place. Ideally located at a short distance from the strip, close to the MGM Grand, the place is perfect to relax after a hectic day of sightseeing. If you are searching for a fantastic destination to visit this summer, Las Vegas is one of the best options.
