Sunday Night NFL Wagering - Cardinals Versus Chiefs

Arizona hasn't found a win since Week 5 now, and in Week 11 they hit the road for Kansas City to confront the Kansas City Chiefs. Two unlikely divisional contenders will match up when the Arizona Cardinals travel to play the Chiefs November 21st in Arrowhead Stadium. The Cardinals are competing in the worst division in the league and are keeping their collective heads above water but the Kansas city chiefs have been playing with and fighting against the superior opponents.

The blowout loss the Chiefs suffered thanks to the Denver broncos was an aberration when making an online bet. They'll get back in the swing of things at Arrowhead Stadium after that embarrassing loss. The Arizona Cardinals haven't played well on the road and this could possibly be a demoralizing wipe out due to an angry Chiefs squad.

Nearly all experts blame the departure of Kurt Warner for the Arizona Cardinals drop in production however the loss of Karlos Dansby on defense could be only as significant. Dansby was the air traffic controller of a really active defense. The ball hawking as well as turnover tackling style of the Arizona Cardinals of old is lost in the 2010 NFL year and it is placing unnecessary strain on the anemic offense.

The Kansas city chiefs have escalated to the leading of the AFC West by using running backs Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones together to wear out defenses. Matt Cassel is the vulnerable connection in the situation and when clubs with great run stopping ability plug up the Chiefs running game they're going to be dead in the water. The Kansas city chiefs offense will run over the Cardinals defense.

The 3-4 defense of the Chiefs has been unsuccessful up front in terms of attacking the qb but they've been useful clogging up the middle of the field. The sack leader on the Kansas city chiefs is outside linebacker Tamba Hali. Hali is a one man wrecking crew coming from off the ball in a stand up stance.

The Arizona Cardinals offense has come apart entirely this year but now they're settled on Derek Anderson for the present time. The running game of the Cardinals must improve in this match and tally more than 150 yards on the ground to assist the passing match. Larry Fitzgerald has kept his head down about the offense and has still delivered under the worry of the ever changing qb position as the squad attempts to find the subsequent Kurt Warner. The Kansas city chiefs defense has the advantage over the Cardinals offense.

The Kansas City Chiefs are the negative 7.5 point favorites with the total over under listed at 44.
