Let's get something straight. I play blackjack. My latest blackjack trip involved chaufferer driven cars, free hotel rooms, free food and wine and high roller hospitality the whole way. I choose to play as often or as little as I like. Typically in a casino, I prefer not to talk to the general gaming public. They think they know so much .... oh, how wrong they are.

Heard all this before? Maybe, maybe not. Had a casino pay your airfare and then wine and dine you lately? Maybe, maybe not. I have.

This is the real deal. Whether you want to believe it or not, you want to play blackjack like me. Otherwise you wouldn't be here. And since you are here, you probably also know about the many so-called 'winning' blackjack strategies that are on the internet today. You may have even bought some, signed on to some email list and then been bombarded with free $10 vouchers for casinos you have never even heard of.

Were you impressed with what you found out there? I wasn't. It's rubbish. Just the same old 'strategy card' that simply doesn't work. In fact, in some casinos, the casino staff are instructed to actually hand these strategy cards out to patrons. Why? Because the casino knows that if you use these cards, you lose. It makes me sick and for you - it's time to wake up and smell the coffee.

I'm the quiet, neatly dressed guy who sits at your table and without too much effort, leaves your table with thousands of dollars in winnings. And I do it quickly. While you sit there and wonder what's going on - I've made more money than most people make in a month.

I typically don't speak and if you pass comment towards me, I'll probably ignore you. Why? Because I don't value your opinion at a blackjack table. You may find me offensive and even consider me rude - but at the blackjack table, I don't care. In fact, if you consider me obnoxious or rude, you are free to leave this site whenever you want to. I don't sit at blackjack tables to make friends, I sit there to make money. I'm here now to show you EXACTLY how I do that. But let's be straight - it is no secret that I'm selling you something. And when you see what I'm offering - you'll be blown away.

"Your strategies are simply brilliant. I had three games in one morning, each less than 45 minutes. My total winnings were over $3,200 dollars and all before lunchtime. Thanks for unlocking the secret to winning blackjack."

Right now I just want to comment on some of the other rubbish I have seen on the internet. The ONLY way these people make money is by selling you their overpriced and useless strategies and then ON-SELLING your emails to spammers. Their information is not designed to help you - a lot of it is designed to fill your email...
