

Published based on Dar misses George date

Dar misses George date

Dar Re Mi has been ruled out of Saturday's King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Ascot after suffering a bruised foot.

John Gosden's three-time Group One winner was due to tackle Derby hero Workforce as well as the talented Harbinger in the Betfair-sponsored contest but has been declared a non-runner.

Gosden's racing secretary Peter Shoemark said: "She has bruised her foot and unfortunately that means she will be unable to run. It's just unfortunate that it has come so close to the race but she will be absolutely fine. It's not ideal but we'll look forward now and the Yorkshire Oaks could be her next objective."

You can also find this article published on Dar misses George date, and on the tag pages Ascot, hero, king george vi, king george vi and queen elizabeth stakes, queen elizabeth stakes, Saturday.