

Published based on Dar tops Eclipse contenders

Dar tops Eclipse contenders

Dubai Sheema Classic winner Dar Re Mi features among 13 remaining entries in the Coral-Eclipse on Saturday.

John Gosden's five-year-old has not raced on British soil since beating Sariska in the Yorkshire Oaks last August but has since finished fifth in the Arc, third in the Breeders' Cup Turf and tasted glory on World Cup night at Meydan.

Aidan O'Brien has six possible runners as he seeks a fifth success in the Sandown showpiece. Royal Ascot disappointment Steinbeck could be joined by Ballydoyle stablemates Beethoven, Bright Horizon, Encompassing, Fencing Master and Viscount Nelson.

Connections of Mawatheeque will be hoping for an improved performance after he was well beaten on his Ascot reappearance, while Henry Cecil's Twice Over could bid for a second Group One win following his narrow defeat in the Prince Of Wales's Stakes.

Jukebox Jury, Sri Putra, Zacinto and Chabal complete the list.

You can also find this article published on Dar tops Eclipse contenders, and on the tag pages Ascot, bright horizon, Classic, fencing master, Saturday, viscount nelson.