Expensive Properties To Rent

when it comes to the vacation there are places that normal people go to and then places the rich and famous visit. I was looking through some of the list of the most expensive properties you can rent for vacation and I did not like most of them. Most of them look pretty naff if you ask me, here are some of the expensive ones.

Admirals Treasure

This is located in the very beautiful key west of Florida and is one of the best streets in the entire state. One of the best things about this property is that it is located in a quiet residential area but not far from Duval which is great for nightlife. The pool is thirty foot long with a waterfall and has landscaping around the villa to ensure the upmost of privacy. the place has one King sized room and three queens. if you wanted to stay here it would cost you a whopping $12,000 per week in the peak season.

Punta De Mita

Out of all of the ones on the list I have to admit that this one looks to be one I would actually stay in if I had money. This property does not come cheap and depending on what time of year you stay it could cost between $70,000 and $112,000. You are paying for quality of course and it has seven bedrooms and nine bathrooms along with a gym making it one of the best villas in the world. The villa also overlooks the beach making it a perfect location to go to.

Reality

The chances are that I am only going to be able to afford cheap spa breaks or Hotels in Devon but hey, I am happy with my dancing holidays so why not?

it would be great to of course stay in one of these locations but if you are happy why does it matter where you go, in truth it doesnt?
