

Published based on Golf Trivia Questions & Facts

Golf Trivia Questions & Facts

Do you know as much about golf as you think you do? Below you'll find some trivia about different golf topics. I have also added some facts that will find of interest. Enjoy!

Which US State has the most golf courses?

Florida

The Sunshine state boasts having one thousand one hundred golf courses? California comes in at number two with 950.

The game of golf was banned in Scotland in what year?

1457

It was banned so that citizens would not waste time. The people were supposed to getting ready for a possible invasion. The ban was lifted in 1502.

If you wanted to play on the world's longest golf course where would you go?

Massachusetts

The course is 8325 yards long and is a par 7. The largest golf green in the world is another claim of this course.

If you wanted to play on the world's oldest golf course where would you go?

Musselburgh, Scotland

The Old Links course is said to be the oldest course in the world. It is said that Queen Mary played the course in 1567.

Who was the youngest golfer to hit a hole in one?

Coby Orr

Coby Orr set the record in 1975 in the toen of Littleton Colorado. Coby was five when he made this famous shot.

In the game of golf what is the maximum number of clubs that a player can use?

A player can have 14 clubs.

A player can share clubs with a partner but their total number of clubs can only be fourteen. A player can carry as many balls as they want.

Which golf course boasts the world's largest bunker?

Pine Valley Course - located in New Jersey

Pine Valley Course in New Jersey is home to this huge bunker. It is appropriately called Hell's Half Acre.

What is the correct golf term for being 4 under par?

A condor A triple eagle is also a condor.

If you hear the word pill in the game of golf what are they talking about?

The ball

Feathers used to be used to make golf balls. Wood and wool were also used to make golf balls.

The longest golf hole is where in the world?

Japan

The longest golf hole in the world is part of the Satsuki Golf Club course. The hole measures an astounding 909 yards and is a par seven.

If you enjoy trivia and facts, you can spin unlimited free trivia quizzes at: Free Printable Trivia Questions

You can also find this article published on Golf Trivia Questions & Facts, and on the tag pages golf, golf trivia, sports, trivia.