It Would Seem Ladies Are Taking The Lead In Poker Matches (Part 2)

Lawyer gone poker, or poker gone lawyer, either way this leading lady is doing something right and has proven that she's got what it takes to succeed in both fields. Selbst has decided to take a year off from studying, get back to the tournament circuit and then finally complete her degree in a year's time. After her degree is finished, Selbst plans to find the perfect medium and division of her time by playing the tournament circuit for about six months and trying her hand at pro bono cases for the rest of the year.

So chaps, are you really going to sit back and let the ladies walk away with all the prize money this year? Only time will tell, but the horses are well and truly out of the starting blocks and the stallions have a lot of catching up to do. So the best of luck to the rest of the year's competitions, and remember if anything goes wrong, we know a good lawyer you could use.

If you're interested in pursuing a law degree you're going to have to look elsewhere, but if it's a little poker with the added bonus of rakeback you want to try your hand at then look no further. You can also try your hand at Littlewoods Poker, or perhaps you prefer Betfair Poker
