

Published based on Midday bids for Breeders' repeat

Midday bids for Breeders' repeat

Connections of Midday are plotting an autumn campaign centred on her defence of the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Churchill Downs in November.

Henry Cecil's star filly recorded her fourth Group One triumph in the Yorkshire Oaks last week and is reported to have taken those exertions well.

Teddy Grimthorpe, racing manager for the owner Prince Khalid Abdullah, said: "We've decided Midday will head for the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf, but whether she'll run again before then has not totally been established."

"We'll see how she goes over the next couple of weeks but at this stage, I would think the Prix Vermeille (September 12) would be more likely than the Prix de l'Opera (October 3).

"There is not a big issue there and the Breeders' Cup is her main objective."

You can also find this article published on Midday bids for Breeders' repeat, and on the tag pages autumn, filly, khalid abduallah, mare turf, prince khalid abduallah, Prix.