

Published based on Paco swerves Summer Mile

Paco swerves Summer Mile

Richard Hannon has decided against running the brilliant Paco Boy in the totesport.com Summer Mile at Ascot on Saturday.

Hannon stated earlier in the week he would prefer to see some rain before committing to the Group Two.

The fact regular rider Richard Hughes is suspended is also likely to have played a part in his decision.

As a result, 10 will go to post, including Michael Jarvis' globetrotter Pressing, a winner in Italy last time out.

Dream Eater, third behind Goldikova and Paco Boy at Ascot, Locking runner-up Ouqba and Godolphin's Alexandros are all engaged.

Ed Dunlop's Fareer, Jeremy Nosedo's Forgotten Voice and the Chris Wall-trained Premio Loco add further strength in depth.

Dingaan, King Of Dixie and French raider Vertigineux complete the field.

You can also find this article published on Paco swerves Summer Mile, and on the tag pages Ascot, ed dunlop, michael jarvis, richard hannon, rider, totesport.