You'll be blown away when you read my story of how I came to create Racing Secrets Exposed - The Definitive Guide To Laying Horses.

This is more than a horse racing system. It's a complete, no holds barred, tell-all guide to making money from horse racing betting like the professionals do.

It's about how I went from being a frustrated losing punter to being a betting expert that regularly gets invited to speak at seminars, in just a few short months.

I wish I could say it was skill and dedication on my part. But in all honesty it was down to pure dumb luck.

It involved a chance meeting with a freelance odds compiler who taught me some pretty unusual techniques and tricks...almost the exact opposite most popular systems and betting experts have you doing.

Anyone who has struggled making profits or wondered "Why am I still losing money all the time?" will relate.

And by the end of this short but revealing letter, which will not be online for too long, I will do a lot more than tell you my story.

I'll give you the solutions I discovered and use to this very day to make sure the losing days are a thing of the past.

OK the real reason why your betting balance continually needs topping up is probably not what you think.

You're here because you're tired of seeing the horse you backed limp home in last place time and time again.

You've tried the latest fad horse racing systems only to end up being out of pocket twice over. Once with the money you had to waste buying the systems in the first place and secondly with all the money you lost actually following them.

If those systems and tipsters actually worked you'd already have that extra mountain of profits you dream of. But they don't and you don't.

Betting is a multi billion dollar industry with big office buildings full of heartless number crunchers.

Bookmakers don't see you as a person. They don't even see you as a customer. To them you're a number with a pound sign attached to it.

You've probably heard of the fact that if you win too much they shut down your account. I can't think of another industry that treats its customers with such contempt can you?

If you end up winning too much they'll shut down your account. You see they're in the business of making obscene amounts of money and for that they need mugs.

If you actually started making money they would lose a customer. Fail and it's cha-ching for them. Now they can sell you the next big thing. And then the next big thing after that.

If you're anything like I was you're probably wondering why you're not making a great second income from betting when you're spending hours reading form and a fortune on systems and tipster services.

Your betting isn't as profitable as you'd like because...
