

Published based on Replacing a Lost United States Passport in a Hurry

Replacing a Lost United States Passport in a Hurry

Seeking for advice on how to get a lost passport replaced fast. It is comprehensible seeing as a lost passport is often noted as missing when a person is getting ready for an impending international trip. The result could be the creation of a whole lot of tension and aggravation. It is very important to understand that it is possible replace the last passport in 24 hours if required. The subsequent strategies will guide you through the procedure.

Report the Lost Passport

Unless your passport was already out of date, it is vital that its loss be reported. You may decide from a couple of methods concerning how you prefer to accomplish this. Calling the National Passport Information Center at 1-877-487-2778 may well be the quickest if you are able to get through. Agents attend phone calls during the week between 8:00 am and 10:00 pm. The call center is not open on federal holidays. An additional way to record the loss is to mail in completed form DS-64. The address is located on the form.

You should verify that your passport is, in fact, lost before doing this. As soon as a passport is reported as lost, the government invalidates it. Passports that are discovered later can't be re-validated.

Applying to Get the Passport Replaced

The replacement of a lost passport requires you apply for a passport in person. Requirements include passport form DS-11, a pair of passport photos, proof of US citizenship, identification document and a copy of your Id. You also need to present your Social Security card.

Adults must pay an application fee of one hundred and ten dollars while minors that are 15 years old or younger only pay eighty dollars if they are requesting a passport book. The fee for a passport card is $30 if you are an adult and $15 if you are a minor. People can request both a passport book and a passport card on the same form. An execution fee of twenty-five dollars must also be paid when applying for a new passport.

Travelers can hand in the form and accompanying documentation at a nearby passport office. This process will enable you to get your application processed in 4 to 6 weeks if you choose standard service. You might opt to get the process expedited so that you can acquire your passport in two to three weeks. You will need to pay an extra fee of $60 if you go with this service.

The Fastest Way to Have a Passport Replaced

What can you do if you cannot wait 2 or 3 weeks to secure your passport. The solution is to submit the form at a passport agency. Regional passport processing centers provide same day processing to United States citizens with immediate travel plans. Set up for an visit by calling 1-877-487-2778 toll-free. Show up a few minutes early, go through security checkpoint, get a number and wait your turn. Whenever your turn comes, present the form and supporting documentation to the attending agent. You should get your passport in hand within a few hours.

Whether for personal convenience or dire need, you can use a competent passport expediting business to turn in your application form at the passport agency.

Unless you reside in the very same city as the passport expediting service and plan to hand deliver your documentation, you will have to add the time it takes to deliver the packet to the total time for processing. Having said that, you can replace a lost passport in approximately 1 or 2 days by employing one of these skilled passport expeditors.

You can also find this article published on Replacing a Lost United States Passport in a Hurry, and on the tag pages application, fee, national passport, passport book, person, social security card.