Sao Paulo - The Complicated And Amazing Section To This Huge Town

As one of the most important cities in the world, Sao Paulo is famous for its intricate culture, along with its captivating city scene. It's the largest and one of the richest cities in both the western and southern hemispheres, and the city is well known for its gastronomy, meaning delicious food abounds. Because it is so beautiful and so interesting, Sao Paulo has always been a popular vacation spot. If a vacation to Sao Paulo is in your near future, you will need to get your passport first. You can get a passport or even an expedited US passport renewal online.

You get to skip all the nightmares that usually come with the passport application process if you get yours online instead. Rather than spending hours driving around, you simply have to fill out a few things online at an official vendor website. A professional passport specialist gets in contact with you, and after you choose how quickly you'd like your passport to be delivered, you're set. Whether you need a new passport or just some more passport pages, it can all be taken care of online.

Because Sao Paulo has such a vivid culture, visiting a museum is a great way to become acquainted with its inner-workings. One of the most popular museums in the city is the Museu do Futebol, or the Football Museum. The sport we call soccer is absolutely vital in Brazilian culture, and this museum has everything you could ever want to know about the sport. It's the national pastime in Brazil, and it's amazing to witness the pride and passion associated with soccer. The Museu de Arte de Sao Paulo is another very popular museum. With more than 8,000 works of art from some of the world's most famous artists, it's a great way to experience the more artistic facet of Sao Paulo.

Visiting Paulista Avenue, one of the busiest and most important streets in the entire city, puts you at the heart of all different sorts of cultural experiences. This road is a cultural hotspot, as it's full of theaters, boutiques, fine dining, bookstores, art galleries, bars, and crazy nightclubs. Whether you explore by day or by night, you can expect to have a lot of fun, eat some great food, and see some interesting characters.

If you are looking for a way to take a break from the bustling city streets, head to Ibirapuera Park. Beautifully maintained and with 1.5 million square meters to explore and relax in, the park features tons of shady trees, beautiful lakes, walking paths, and more. The park itself also houses some important landmarks, such as the Modern Art Museum and the Japanese pavilion. Parque do Carmo is a similar relaxing spot, but this park is more nature-oriented. Around 25% of the total land is a protected rainforest reserve, and you are more likely to experience some native plants and animals in this park.

Regardless of the reason you want to travel to this big and beautiful city - the steamy nightlife, the vibrant and colorful culture, or just to experience the city - Sao Paulo is sure to create memories. Get your passport online, and if you have an expired passport, you can get an expedited passport renewal online as well. You can also just get some more us passport pages if you're running low.
