The Paradise For Snowboarders

It's rather cold outside, the Sun doesn't warm you, a lot of snow everywhere... Many people are so upset because of such weather and only lovers of winter kinds of sport are very glad to have such great weather. Snowboarders are of course among them! It's time for vacation and every snowboarder is looking for good mountain. Meaning of good mountain is different for almost every snowboarder. Somebody wants to find pretty mountain not very far from home and others agree to go through thousands of kilometres to enjoy their favourite snowboarding. It's very important to choose the right time and to get to your mountain when it's not overcrowded.

One of the most popular mountain is situated into California and is named Kirkwood. It's like a paradise for snowboarders with it's wonderful snowboard park and great snowboarding mountain. Not long time ago it was renovated and some lifts were added. Of course Kirkwood is rather expensive snowboarding resort, but if you go there once, you will never forget it and will find opportunity to come there back.

The other popular snowboarding resort is Mammoth Lake, it's also into well-known California. It can impress you with wonderful picturesque landscape and of course great mountain. It has long mountain season and snowboarders of different countries are very glad about that. Even in early November they can already practice snowboarding there.

I cannot forget about Maine and its wonderful Sugarloaf... This resort is one of the best and professional snowboarders like to visit it very much. It usually opens in the middle of November and you can book tickets beforehand, it's a little bit cheaper.

If you are skilled snowboarder already, you will keep yourself away from Vermont and its Stowe Mountain Resort. It has great icy slopes and beginners should avoid them. To start your training is better somewhere else, but not at this resort.

Of course you can make your choice yourself, but if you are just an amateur and not rather qualified yet, it's better to ask for advice of your instructor and he will help you to choose proper mountain according to your professional skills and money. Of course you can find more information about prices through Internet and even book tickets there, but you will not be sure that you made the right choice, especially if it's your first trip to snowboarding resort. Don't forget that snowboard will not apologise mistakes and you can harm yourself. Your instructor will also help you to check all your equipment and if you need change some gear, it's better to make it before your trip. Your safety depends on you and your responsibility.

If you don't feel good, it's better to delay your trip, because bad health can bring new problems during your vacation.
